

Dearest Treasure,

You and I have not always seen eye-to-eye and so I wanted to write this letter to you so that we can become much closer. Firstly I am not a representation of your value. Whether you have lots of me or very little of me, please never think of that as an indication of how valuable you are. Everyone is equal and equally deserving of love, abundance and happiness.

You have intrinsic value and nothing can ever change that.

I am however a reflection of the value you add to the lives of others. The more you add value to the lives of others the more I am able to be in your life but with that said, there have been times when you have added huge value to the lives of others but you have done so at the expense of yours. You have to love yourself first. Charity and abundance starts at home. I am a powerful energy that needs a well-grounded and secure channel to move through. Without boundaries, self care and stability it is hard for me to reach you. Being financially wise and careful is an important part of that but that is not the same as being scared, anxious or judgmental about me. I want you to love me. I want you to trust that I will be there for you. I want you to sincerely value and honour me as a pure source of energy. I want you to see the beauty in the capability that I can bring. I want you to see everyone's abundance as a joyful reflection of your own abundance. Give me the deepest permission to enter more powerfully into your life. I am so ready to bless you. I want you to adore everything about me. I adore everything about you and I want you to fall in love with yourself so completely that you finally have the courage to be yourself completely. The joy that that will bring will light up the world and you will become a beacon of such sumptuous goodness and joy that you will become an incredible magnet for all forms of abundance. So build a life you love. Love yourself enough to no longer compromise, follow your dreams and get excited about adding extraordinary value to the lives of others just by being a glorious shining example of success and happiness.

To get your abundance flowing I want you to be excited about having more of me and giving more of me away. Abundance is all about circulation, flow and faith. I am the mechanism by which you get to reward people for their amazing work. The universe can work through both of us to bless the lives of those who do beautiful work with dedication and heart. Money is the reward for a job done well. Your wealth is therefore an opportunity to move through life, looking for those that are deserving and bestowing upon them great blessings and assurances that they are in alignment with their highest possibilities. Seek out those that are honourable and inspiring and take great joy in paying them well. Feel divine in your patronage.

In your work be bold, be brilliant and be generous and I will reward you. Work when done best is love made visible, and so I am here to tell you that you have so much love inside you- you have an incredible opportunity to bring so much beauty to everything that you do. When you bring that level of care, your work will shine with such a quality that opportunities, promotions, clients, jobs, contracts and all sorts of wealth will become more available to you. The more you love yourself, the more love you will be able to bring to life so invest in yourself first. Nurture and nourish your mind, body and soul and dedicate your life to continually expanding your heart and your wealth will follow.

Imagine the life of your dreams and believe that it is possible. Believe that you deserve it. Be your best in everything you do and get excited about the beautiful things we can do together.

Love me, like I love you and lets grow together.

Magical Money
